You can clear (vacate) certain Washington state misdemeanor convictions from your record. Learn which convictions you can vacate and how to do it. (Forms and instructions)

We have separate forms and instructions for vacating different types of criminal records.

1. Fast facts

What does it mean to “vacate” convictions?

Vacate is the legal term for “clearing” a conviction from your criminal record. Even though vacating a record cancels the judgement against you, it does not make the court record private. If you get a criminal record vacated, you can tell anyone who asked that you were not convicted of that offense.

Can I get an order to vacate for a misdemeanor conviction?

Yes, if you meet the requirements. Washington's New Hope Act makes it easier to vacate some criminal convictions that happened in Washington state. (The law is at RCW 9.96.060 (<https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=9.96.060>)). You can vacate many types of misdemeanor convictions. You can also have multiple misdemeanors vacated all at once, or at different times. There are some types of misdemeanors that you can't vacate.

The law was updated in 2024. Now you don't have to wait 3 years after you pay off your Legal Financial Obligations (or "LFOs") to vacate your convictions. You can also ask the court to cancel or reduce some LFOs if you can't afford to pay.

For other types of criminal records, there might be other forms or instructions that you will need.

Why would I want to vacate a conviction?

It will:

- Give you some protection in background checks.
- Stop the State Patrol from releasing the record to the public.
- Officially "cancel" the conviction. GR 15(b)(8)
(https://www.courts.wa.gov/court\_rules/?fa=court\_rules.display&group=ga&set=gr&ruleid=ga15b8)
- You can tell anyone, including someone who might hire you, that you were not convicted of that offense.

Will I need to go to a hearing?

Maybe not. The prosecutor might agree to a vacate order if you meet all legal requirements. Local practices vary. Ask the county prosecutor's office in the county where your conviction occurred if they'll agree to a vacate order. If they agree to the order, you probably won't have to go to a hearing.

You'll most likely have to go to the court many times even if you don't have a hearing. Prepare for multiple visits to the courthouse over a period of many weeks.

If I vacate my record, will it be totally cleared?

If you're granted an order that vacates a conviction or record, Washington State Patrol (WSP) will remove the vacated conviction from your public criminal history record. This gives you some protection in some background checks.

There may still be a mention of your conviction or record in certain places even if you have the record vacated. But once you have a court order that vacates a conviction, you can show that to prove that the record was vacated any time it does show up.

Will this remove all public information about the conviction?

No. It will not remove it from court records and computerized court indexes to court records, such as:

- JIS.
- SCOMIS.
- The Washington Courts public website (<http://www.courts.wa.gov>)

If it was a domestic violence case, these records and indexes will still show the case type.

Even if you have your record vacated, it can still show up in these ways:

- Information about the court records from the case that led to the conviction are still public and accessible on Washington Courts public website (<http://www.courts.wa.gov>).
- Prosecutors can still raise evidence of the vacated conviction during a later criminal prosecution or sexually violent predator commitment proceeding.
- FBI records and private background check service records may still have info about a vacated conviction.
- Employers, landlords, and others doing background checks might still find out about your conviction from sources including court indexes, law enforcement databases, and/or records collected by private data brokers.

Can I have my conviction expunged?

No. In some states, expungement of a conviction means they delete it from your records entirely. There is no Washington law allowing for the deletion or destruction of an adult conviction record.

Can I get my non-conviction data deleted?

Yes. You can ask Washington State Patrol (WSP) to delete non-conviction data. It is hard for information to qualify as non-conviction data under the rules. This could make it hard for you to get the information deleted. RCW 10.97.030\(2\) (<http://apps.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=10.97.030>) and 10.97.060 (<http://apps.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=10.97.060>) describe which kinds of information can be deleted from your record.

I got a Vacate Order. What if agencies are still reporting that information anyway?

Under state law, law enforcement agencies must report accurate and complete criminal history info. No agency may report criminal history info concerning a conviction without checking with WSP to find out the most current and complete info available. RCW 10.97.040.

(https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=10.97.040)

You may be able to sue an agency that violates this requirement. This might make sense if, for example, you lost a job opportunity because of their mistake. RCW 10.97.110 (<http://apps.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=10.97.110>). You may be able to get attorney's fees.

The court file stays open to the public. A background check may still show your conviction if the person doing the background check looks at the court file. If that happens, you can show them the court order that vacated your conviction. That order is supposed to clear your record related to that information. Employers should accept the vacate order as proof that the record was cleared even if the court file information is still public.

Employees at an agency that keeps reporting your vacated conviction may be criminally liable. RCW 10.97.120 (https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=10.97.120).

2. Requirements

Are there special requirements for vacating a misdemeanor?

Yes. You must meet all these requirements:

- There are no criminal charges pending against you in any state, federal, or tribal court.
- At least 3 years have passed from whichever of these dates is later:
  - The end of your supervision or probation
  - The end of your total and partial confinement
  - Your sentencing date
- You weren't convicted of any crimes in any state, federal, or tribal court in the 3 years before you apply to vacate.
- You must not have a current domestic violence protection order, a no-contact order, an antiharassment order, or a civil restraining order against you. You also can't have any violations of such orders during the 5 years before you apply to vacate.
- You've paid all the legal financial obligations (LFOs) for the offense you want to vacate. (You can ask the court to cancel or reduce some LFOs if you can't afford to pay.)
- The misdemeanor you want to vacate is not one of the types that can't be vacated.
- Special types of misdemeanors may have additional requirements or special forms.

What types of misdemeanors can't be vacated?

Courts will not vacate these:

- DUI convictions (RCW 46.61.502
(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=46.61.502>))
- Sex offenses (RCW 9A.44
(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=9A.44>)). There is one exception. You can vacate a conviction for failing to register as a sex offender.
- Convictions involving obscenity and pornography (RCW 9.68
(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=9.68>))
- Convictions involving sexual exploitation of children (RCW 9.68A
(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=9.68A>))
- Violent offenses or attempts to commit violent offenses (RCW 9.94A.030
(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=9.94A.030>))

3. Special types of convictions

Can I vacate a misdemeanor for cannabis (marijuana) use?

Yes. There is only one requirement. You must have been at least 21 years old at the time of the offense. Vacate a cannabis (marijuana) misdemeanor conviction has the instructions and forms that you need.

Can I vacate a prostitution conviction?

Yes, if all these are true:

- You can prove that you were a victim of trafficking.
- You can prove that the offense you want to have vacated was a result of being trafficked.
- You have no other pending criminal charges anywhere for any crimes besides prostitution.
- If the conviction you want vacated is a misdemeanor, then you must not have been convicted of a new crime in any state, federal, or tribal court in the 3 years prior to your application to vacate.

It can be difficult to prove the required evidence for this kind of conviction. This might be hard to do on your own. Try to get legal help.

I am a member of an Indian tribe in Washington. What if my conviction was for exercising my tribal fishing rights?

You can have the conviction vacated if both these are true:

- You are a member of a tribe that has treaty Indian fishing rights.
- They have those rights at the location where the offense occurred.

How do I vacate a criminal conviction related to treaty Indian fishing rights has the special instructions and forms you need to ask for this unique kind of order to vacate. If you need to ask to vacate a conviction related to your tribal fishing rights, the Native American Unit of the Northwest Justice Project (<https://nwjustice.org/specialized-units#6>) might be able to help you.

What if I need to vacate juvenile records?

Seal, vacate, or destroy juvenile court records has the instructions and forms you need.

Can I vacate domestic violence misdemeanors?

Only if you meet the requirements. You must do all of these:

- Notify the prosecuting attorney's office that prosecuted you that you are filing to vacate these convictions.
- Not have 2 or more domestic violence convictions from different incidents.
- Wait at least 5 years since you completed the sentence. This includes finishing any treatment that was ordered.

What if my conviction was related to being a victim of a crime?

It can be easier to vacate your conviction if you can show that you committed the crime because you were the victim of domestic violence, sex trafficking, prostitution, or commercial sex abuse of a minor. In that situation, you can ask to have your records vacated even if you didn't receive a Certificate of Discharge.

You might have to show that you paid the crime victim's penalty assessment or paid any restitution not owed to an insurer.

You might be able to ask for your records to be vacated even if you have pending criminal prostitution charges.

Aside from current pending prostitution charges, you also can't have had any new convictions in state, tribal, or federal court for:

- 3 years before you ask to vacate the conviction

You'll still have to meet the other requirements (<https://app.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=9.96.080>) to get an order that vacates your record. You may want to talk to a lawyer if you are trying to vacate records related to a conviction that happened because you were a crime victim.

I don't need one of the special packets for my conviction. What forms should I use?

You can use the forms in this guide.

4. Before you file

1. Get a criminal history "WATCH" report.

---

You can prove you have no new arrests on your record by getting a criminal history (WATCH) report from the Washington State Patrol (<https://watch.wsp.wa.gov/>). There will be different fees depending on what kind of report you order. You must pay with a credit or debit card.

You may be able to use an "unofficial" copy based on a search of your name and date of birth. Some prosecutors and judges will insist on a "fingerprint based" search, which is more expensive.

WSP can take a long time to process your request. If you haven't gotten the report after 8 weeks, call them at (360) 705-5100.

2. Gather your documents.

Go to the clerk's office in the court that convicted you. Ask to purchase copies of these documents the court file (you just need regular copies, not certified):

- Certificate and Order of Discharge. They should have filed this in the criminal case file when you finished all sentencing conditions, including payment of legal financial obligations. Ask the court clerk how to look up your case file. Some courts have online dockets where you can find out when the court entered the Order of Discharge. If there's no Certificate and Order of Discharge in your file, you can file a motion with the sentencing court to get one. RCW 9.94A.637 (<http://apps.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=9.94A.637>). Try to get legal help.

There may be a delay between when you finished all sentence requirements and when the court entered the Discharge Order. Starting July 28, 2019, your certificate of discharge is effective on the date you completed all conditions of your sentence. RCW 9.94A.637\(1\) (<https://app.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=9.94A.637>).

If you're using the special rules for victims of certain crimes, you won't need a Certificate of Discharge.

- Judgment and Sentence

The files with these documents may be in the court archives. You may have to order an archived file. This can take several weeks.

5. Step-by-step

If you meet the requirements and have gathered your documents, follow these steps:

1. Fill out the forms (except for the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery).

2. Contact the prosecutor's office.

Before filing your papers or scheduling a court hearing, you should contact the prosecutor's office involved in your case to see if they might agree. This will take some time. When you call, you can say:

I'm filing a petition to vacate a misdemeanor from (year). Which prosecutor in your office handles this issue? What's the best way for me to send paperwork to you?

Write down the prosecutor's name, then send that person a copy of your Petition (with any attachments) and a proposed Order. Wait a few days, then call that prosecutor to ask if they'll agree to sign an order vacating your conviction.

The prosecutor's office may sign off on an Agreed Order if you provide enough proof that you have met the requirements. If they do that, you probably won't have to have a court hearing.

If the prosecutor doesn't respond or agree, you can schedule a hearing and ask the judge to decide. You must follow court rules and properly notify the prosecutor of the hearing.

You have the right to file your motion and get a decision from a judge.

3. Make 3 copies of your completed forms (except for the Proof of Service).

4. Call or visit the Superior Court Clerk's Office (https://www.courts.wa.gov/court\_dir/?fa=court\_dir.county).

Tell the clerk you will be filing a petition to vacate a misdemeanor. Tell the clerk you want to schedule a hearing on your motion 3 or 4 weeks from now.

Ask the clerk:

- What day and time can I schedule a hearing on my request to vacate?
- Which docket or calendar will the hearing be on?
- What courtroom will the hearing be in? (This may be assigned on the day of the hearing.)
- Is there an option to appear remotely? (Phone or video.)
- Do you have a local form I have to use to schedule a hearing?

If the clerk says you must use their local form, ask them where you can get that form. Otherwise, you can use the Notice of Hearing form we give you. Write in the hearing details you got from the clerk.

In some counties the judge may decide these motions without a hearing. If the clerk says you don't need a hearing date, ask when you can expect to get a decision. You still need to follow all the steps below (except preparing for and going to the hearing).

The clerk should not charge you a fee to file this motion.

5. File the originals with the Superior Court Clerk.

To file in person:

- Bring your originals and copies to the clerk's office
- Give the clerk your set of originals to file
- Ask the clerk to stamp your copies to show the date you filed the originals, OR stamp the copies yourself
- Take the stamped copies back from the clerk. The clerk keeps the originals

To file by mail: mail the court clerk your originals plus one set of copies with a postage-paid return envelope addressed to you.

6. Deliver or mail working copies to the judge if local rules require it. Ask the clerk where to deliver the judge's working copies. (Skip this step if local rules don't require it.)

7. Deliver or mail a copy to the prosecutor's office right away. Most counties require service at least 14 days before a hearing. Ask the clerk if your county's deadline is different.

You can serve the prosecutor by hand delivery or regular mail.

Hand Delivery means handing a copy to someone who works in the prosecutor's office. Have them stamp the date on your copy of the same papers. Tell them you've scheduled a hearing, and they should give your papers to a prosecutor right away.

Mail: If you're mailing, you must mail your papers more than 3 days before your deadline.

- When counting, don't count the day of mailing, weekends, or court holidays (Example: if you mail something on a Monday, it counts as served on Thursday)
- If the third day is on a weekend or holiday, it is not "served" until the next court day

If you send your papers by regular first-class mail, you can have an extra copy sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, for extra proof of mailing. You can staple the green return receipt card to the Proof of Service form. (This is not required.)

If there were identifiable victims of your crime, write the prosecuting attorney asking them to send each victim notice of the hearing. Include a copy of the Notice of Hearing and an envelope with the right amount of postage for each victim.

8. File your Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery. As soon as you have mailed or delivered the papers to the prosecutor, fill out and sign the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form. Then:

- Make 3 copies
- Take the original and copies to the court clerk's office
- Give the original to the clerk for filing
- Ask the clerk to stamp the date you filed the original on your copies
- Bring your copies to the hearing.

9. Get ready for and go to your court hearing. Read the next chapters for what to say and do at the hearing.
10. Get certified copies of the signed order from the clerk. When the order is available, go to the clerk's office and ask for at least 2 certified copies of the signed orders. The clerk will charge you for the copies.

Keep a certified copy of your order with you in case someone, like a prospective employer, gets negative information from some other source.
11. After the hearing, follow up with the Washington State Patrol (WSP) and other agencies.

6. What to say in court

Before the hearing, make a short outline of what to say to the court. It should look like this:

Introduction:

- My name is _____. Thank you for letting me be heard. I am bringing a motion to vacate my misdemeanor conviction.

Tell the judge you've met all the statutory requirements from RCW 9.96.060 (<https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=9.96.060>):

- I haven't been convicted of a new crime in Washington, another state, or federal or tribal court in the three years prior to making this application to vacate.
- I don't have a current domestic violence protection order, a no-contact order, an antiharassment order, or a civil restraining order against me.
- I haven't had any violations of a domestic violence protection order, a no-contact order, an anti-harassment order, or a civil restraining order during the 5 years prior to this application to vacate.
- There are no current criminal charges against me anywhere.
- At least 3 years have passed since:

- The end of my supervision or probation,
- The end of my total or partial confinement,
- My sentencing date.
- The offense was not one of the kinds that can't be vacated.
- I've given a copy of my proposed order to the prosecution. May I hand it up to you now?

The judge may ask you questions. If so, answer them to the best of your ability.

Practice what you'll say from your outline before you go to court. It's okay to read from your notes when you speak to the judge.

7. Court hearing

Bring your copies of the documents that the clerk's office and prosecutor's office date stamped. Also bring the extra copies of your Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery and Order on Petition to Vacate.

If you have children, try to find someone to watch them while you go to court. The judge probably won't let them sit in the courtroom.

Don't bring a weapon, or something that could be mistaken for a weapon (like a pocketknife), to the courthouse.

Try to be in the courtroom at least 15 minutes before you were told to be there. Give yourself time to find parking, or the right transit stop, or to wait in line to get into the courthouse.

If your hearing is online, follow these tips for phone and video hearings

When you get to the courtroom:

- Check in with the courtroom clerk. Usually, they are sitting at a desk close to the judge. Tell the courtroom clerk your name because they need to know that you are there.

- Find the prosecutor and introduce yourself. Go over any last-minute details with them before the hearing, like an agreed order.
- When the judge calls your case, walk up to the table or podium for lawyers in front of the judge. Wait for them to tell you that it is your turn to speak.

Follow your outline.

- During the hearing, speak only to the judge. Speak only when it is your turn. Don't interrupt the judge or speak to the prosecutor, even if they interrupt or speak to you.
- Be polite, reasonable, and calm. If you're confused or don't understand something, politely tell the judge so and ask for clarification. If the judge asks you any questions, answer the best you can. If you don't know the answer to the judge's question, don't guess. Tell the judge you don't know the answer. If you need time to think, just tell the court you need a moment. Take your time.
- If the judge agrees with you and signs your order, ask the judge or courtroom clerk when the order will be available at the clerk's office.

8. Follow up

Check with Washington State Patrol & other agencies

About a month after the judge signs your vacate order, call WSP at (360) 534-2000. Ask WSP if they got your vacate order from the court and are working on processing it. (The clerk should have sent it.) If they don't yet have it, call the court clerk's office and ask them to send a copy to WSP.

About 3 months after you called the WSP to make sure they got your vacate order, you should check if your criminal history record with WSP is up-to-date and correct. Do this by ordering a new official and/or unofficial copy of your criminal history report.

Your criminal history info may have found its way into other databases. Contact the FBI, local law enforcement, Department of Corrections, Department of Licensing, and other agencies to ask them to remove their records about this info from public dissemination. You may need to send them a certified copy of the vacate order.

A private data company may have your conviction record. Ask the agencies to tell any private company that has gotten the record from them in the past to update their records and stop disseminating it because of the vacate order. You may need to send them a certified copy of your order.

Try to keep at least 1 certified copy of your order in case someone, like a prospective employer, gets negative info from some other source.

Tips for filling out the Notice of Hearing (NJP General 008)

Fill out the Notice of Hearing with details from the court clerk. You can try to get that information over the phone, or in-person when you file your papers. When choosing a date, leave yourself enough time to have the other party served.

Many counties require you to use their own form. Ask the clerk if they use a special Notice of Hearing form. If not, use ours.

Tips for filling out the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery (NJP General 002)

Fill out this form after serving the other party. Whoever served the other party must sign it. Follow the rules for service after a case starts.

Check to be sure your server filled out the date of service, who the papers were delivered to, and how they were delivered. Also be sure the form lists all documents that were served. If your server leaves out a form, you won't have proof it was served.

The fact that the defendant has been convicted of the offense shall not be included in the defendant's criminal history for purposes of determining a sentence in any subsequent conviction, except that a vacated conviction qualifies as a prior conviction for the purpose of charging a later recidivist offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030. A vacated conviction may be used for other purposes in a later criminal prosecution with the following exception: when a court vacates a record of domestic violence as defined in RCW 10.99.020, the state may not use the vacated conviction in a later criminal prosecution unless the conviction was for: (i) violating the provisions of a restraining order, a no-contact order, or protection order restraining or enjoining the person or restraining the person from going on to the grounds of or entering a residence, workplace, school, or daycare, or prohibiting the person from knowingly coming within, or knowingly remaining within, a specified distance of a location, a protected party's person, or a protected party's vehicle; (ii) stalking; or (iii) domestic violence protection order or vulnerable adult protection order. The clerk of the court shall immediately transmit a certified copy of this order to the Washington State Patrol and to (local law enforcement agency) _____ which agencies shall immediately update their records to reflect the vacation of the conviction of the offense listed in this section.
