Si le desalojan por no pagar la renta, es posible que pueda restaurar su arrendamiento si puede pagar lo que debe en un solo pago o demostrar al juez que puede pagar a lo largo del tiempo con un plan de pagos. Incluye formularios judiciales que puede usar para pedirle al juez que restaure su arrendamiento en virtud de la ley RCW 59.18.410 (<https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=59.18.410>).

1. Datos claves

Los inquilinos que se atrasan en el pago de su renta podrían tener que ir a una audiencia para Mostrar Causa en una demanda de desalojo (Acción de Retención Ilícita). El juez puede dictar una sentencia contra el inquilino en la audiencia, en la que se indica cuánto dinero el inquilino debe al arrendador.

Según la ley RCW 59.18.410(2)

(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=59.18.410>), un inquilino puede pedir al juez que restaure su arrendamiento si puede pagar todo lo que debe al arrendador mediante un solo pago dentro de 5 días judiciales después de la audiencia.

Según la ley RCW 59.18.410(3)

(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=59.18.410>), algunos inquilinos pueden pedir al juez que les dé un plan de pago para darles tiempo para pagar la renta adeudada y continuar viviendo en su vivienda alquilada. Los inquilinos también pueden pedir al juez que suspenda (detenga) la ejecución de una Orden Judicial de Restitución para que el sheriff no les desaloje mientras siguen haciendo los pagos conforme al plan.

2. Pago de la deuda en un solo pago

Los inquilinos que se atrasan en el pago de la renta podrían tener que ir a una audiencia para Mostrar Causa en una demanda de desalojo (Acción de Retención Ilícita). El juez puede dictar una sentencia contra el inquilino en la audiencia, en la que se indica cuánto dinero el inquilino debe al arrendador.

Según la ley RCW 59.18.410(2)

(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=59.18.410>), algunos inquilinos pueden pagar lo que deben con una suma global para restaurar su arrendamiento y evitar el desalojo.

En la Audiencia para Mostrar Causa o hasta 5 días judiciales después, el inquilino puede restaurar su arrendamiento si puede pagar la renta adeudada, hasta $75 en recargos por atraso si están permitidos en el contrato de arrendamiento, y los costos judiciales y honorarios de abogado que se otorguen en la sentencia.

Si el inquilino restaura su arrendamiento pagando lo que debe en un solo pago, también podría ser elegible para obtener una Orden para Limitar la Diseminación del registro de desalojo.

Puede usar los siguientes formularios de Petición y Orden Propuesta para pedirle a un juez que restaure su arrendamiento después de pagar lo que debe haciendo un solo pago y también pedir una Orden para Limitar la Diseminación del registro de desalojo.

3. Planes de Pago

Según la ley RCW 59.18.410(3)

(<https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=59.18.410>), algunos inquilinos pueden pedir al juez que les dé un plan de pagos para darles tiempo de pagar la renta adeudada y seguir viviendo en su vivienda alquilada. Los inquilinos también pueden pedir al juez que suspenda (detenga) la ejecución de una Orden Judicial de Restitución para que el sheriff no les desaloje mientras siguen haciendo los pagos conforme al plan.

Al considerar si concede o no un plan de pagos, el juez debería considerar la existencia de los siguientes factores al tomar la decisión:

- el incumplimiento voluntario o intencional del inquilino o el no pago intencional de la renta
- si el no pago de la renta fue causado por circunstancias fuera del control del inquilino y que no es probable que se repitan
- la capacidad del inquilino para pagar oportunamente la sentencia
- el historial de pago del inquilino
- si, aparte de esto, el inquilino está cumpliendo sustancialmente con el contrato de arrendamiento
- qué tan graves serían las dificultades para el inquilino en caso de ser desalojado, y
- conducta relacionada con otros avisos notificados en los últimos seis meses.

Puede usar la Petición y Orden Propuesta para pedirle a un juez un plan de pagos para evitar el desalojo y continuar con su arrendamiento.

Defendant (tenant): _____

Motion to Reinstate Tenancy and Limit Dissemination (Judgment paid)

(No mandatory form)

Motion to Reinstate Tenancy and Limit Dissemination (Judgment paid)

Use this form to ask a judge to cancel your eviction and restore (reinstate) your tenancy if you've paid (or offered to pay) what you owe all at once. This also asks for an order keeping information about the eviction out of future tenant screening reports (an order for limited dissemination). Use this with a proposed order form NJP Housing 637.

1. My name is _____. I am the defendant in this case.

2. Request to reinstate tenancy

I ask the court to reinstate my tenancy and allow me to continue living in my rental unit because I paid the amount owed as described in my declaration below, or I offered to pay that amount and Plaintiff refused to accept it.

3. Request for Order for Limited Dissemination and to quash any Writ of Restitution

If the court reinstates my tenancy, I also ask for an order of limited dissemination according to RCW 59.18.367(1)(b) and to cancel (quash) any Writ of Restitution issued in this case.

4. Declaration: Payment made or offered

I declare that on (date): _____, I paid or offered to pay $_____. This amount is the full amount owed including all the following:

- The total amount of rent due or payment due under a deposit installment plan
- Late fees (if due under the lease and not exceeding $75)
- Court costs incurred at the time of payment
- Attorney's fees (if ordered)

- Payment made. I paid the above amount to (check one):
 - The landlord (or their attorney, if any).
 - The court registry.
- Payment offered and refused. I offered to pay the above amount to my landlord or their attorney and they did not accept it.

5. Authority to reinstate tenancy

When eviction is for non-payment, a tenant may reinstate their tenancy at any time up to 5 court days after entry of a judgment at an unlawful detainer hearing. The relevant paragraph of RCW 59.18.410(2) states:

When the tenant is liable for unlawful detainer after a default in the payment of rent, execution upon the judgment shall not occur until the expiration of five court days after the entry of the judgment.

Before entry of a judgment or until five court days have expired after entry of a judgment, the tenant [...] or other party interested in the continuance of the tenancy, may pay into the court or to the landlord the amount of the rent due, any court costs incurred at the time of payment, late fees if such fees are due under the lease and do not exceed seventy-five dollars in total, and attorneys' fees if awarded, in which event any judgment entered shall be satisfied and the tenant restored to his or her tenancy.

A tenant's liability for unlawful detainer after default in the payment of rent begins just after the period of 14 days after service of a "Fourteen-Day Notice to Pay Rent or Vacate the Premises." See RCW 59.12.030(3). This date would be the first date available for the tenant to be restored to his or her tenancy under RCW 59.18.410(2), so long as the tenant pays the amount of the rent due and any late fees (if such fees are due under the lease and do not exceed $75 in total).

After court costs have been incurred (but before any judgment is entered), the tenant may pay the amount of rent due, plus any court costs incurred at the time of payment, plus late fees (not to exceed $75.00 in total) and then be restored to his or her tenancy. Late fees for rent owed between March 1, 2020 and December 31, 2021 may not be included. RCW 59.18.625.

After a judgment has been entered, the tenant has 5 court days to pay the amount of the rent due, plus any court costs incurred, plus late fees (not to exceed $75.00 in total), plus attorneys' fees if awarded, and then the tenant shall be restored to his or her tenancy. Additionally, any judgment entered shall be satisfied and the landlord shall file a satisfaction of judgment with the court. RCW 59.18.410(2).

Deposit installment plan. Under RCW 59.18.283(3), a tenant may reinstate the tenancy if a tenant defaulted in payment owed under a deposit installment plan:

When, at the commencement of the tenancy, the landlord has provided an installment payment plan for nonrefundable fees or deposits for the security of the tenant's obligations and the tenant defaults in payment, the landlord may treat the default in payment as rent owing. Any rights the tenant and landlord have under this chapter with respect to rent owing equally apply under this subsection.

Because the Defendant has tendered the appropriate amount of rent, costs and/or fees to the Plaintiff, this court should order the Defendant's tenancy reinstated under RCW 59.18.410(2). If the tenancy is reinstated, any Writ of Restitution must be quashed.

6. Authority to order limited dissemination

Under RCW 59.18.367(1)(b), a court may order an unlawful detainer action to be of limited dissemination if the tenancy was reinstated under RCW 59.18.410 or other law. If Defendant is reinstated under RCW 59.18.410(2), the court should issue an order barring the disclosure of the existence of this unlawful detainer action in a tenant screening report or using it as a factor in determining any score or recommendation in a tenant screening report.

6. Authority to stay the Writ of Restitution

Under RCW 59.18.410(3)(a), “the court, at the time of the show cause hearing or trial, or upon subsequent motion of the tenant but before the execution of the writ of restitution, may stay the writ of restitution upon good cause and on such terms that the court deems fair and just for both parties.”

Under RCW 59.18.410(3)(a), “the court shall consider evidence of the following factors” in making this decision: the tenant’s willful or intentional default or intentional failure to pay rent; whether non-payment of the rent was caused by exigent circumstances that were beyond the tenant’s control and that are not likely to recur; the tenant’s ability to timely pay the judgment; the tenant’s payment history; whether the tenant is otherwise in substantial compliance with the rental agreement; hardship on the tenant if evicted; and conduct related to other notices served within the last six months.

Under RCW 59.18.410(3)(c)(iv), the court shall stay the writ as necessary to afford a tenant an equal opportunity to comply with the terms of a payment plan if a tenant is relying on an emergency rental program provided by a government or nonprofit entity and provides an offer of proof.

Under RCW 59.18.283, a tenant may move to stay a writ of execution if a tenant defaulted in payment owed under a deposit installment plan. RCW 59.18.283 now includes the provision that “When, at the commencement of the tenancy, the landlord has provided an installment payment plan for nonrefundable fees or deposits for the security of the tenant's obligations and the tenant defaults in payment, the landlord may treat the default in payment as rent owing. Any rights the tenant and landlord have under this chapter with respect to rent owing equally apply under this subsection.” RCW 59.18.283(3).

Under RCW 59.18.410(3)(e)(i), the court shall issue a finding as to whether the tenant is low-income, limited resourced, or experiencing hardship to determine if the parties may be eligible for disbursement through the landlord mitigation program account established within RCW 43.31.605(1)(c).

A recently added provision to RCW 43.31.605, provides that unpaid judgments resulting from the tenant's failure to comply with an installment payment agreement are also eligible for reimbursement from the landlord mitigation program. See RCW 43.31.605 (1)(c).
