Problems getting title to your manufactured home

Various issues can cause problems getting title to your manufactured or mobile home. This guide explains how to try to get title in your name and has the court forms you need for an order to Quiet Title. We have a separate guide to guiet title for a vehicle.

1. Common ways to get title

How do I normally get proof of mobile home ownership?

We use the term "manufactured home" interchangeably with "mobile home."

Even though some mobile homes are hard or impossible to move once they are installed, they still have to be titled like a vehicle because they are considered to be "moveable" property. Movable property (https://dor.wa.gov/sites/default/files/2022-02/MobileHomesFAQ.pdf) is property like vehicles and mobile homes. Real property is property like land and buildings that are permanently attached to the land.

A mobile home's buyer and seller must both give paperwork that reports the sale to the Washington Department of Licensing (http://www.dol.wa.gov/) (DOL) within 5 days of the mobile home's sale. The seller signs over the title to you. The DOL then issues you a new title.

What if the seller lost the title?

A seller who has lost or misplaced the title can apply for a new copy (https://dol.wa.gov/vehicles-and-boats/vehicles/renew-or-replace-vehicle-tabs/affidavit-lossrelease-interest) and sign it over to you. The seller should use the DOL's Affidavit of Loss/Release of Interest form (https://dol.wa.gov/forms/view/420040/download?inline).

What if the title is in some other registered or legal owner's name?

You can ask the last registered or legal owner to sign and file an Affidavit of Loss/Release of Interest form (https://dol.wa.gov/forms/view/420040/download?inline).

Example: You finished making your payments on the home. You can ask the legal owner to sign and file a release of interest.

What if the title to the mobile home was lost?

You can ask the last registered or legal owner to sign and file an Affidavit of Loss/Release of Interest form (https://dol.wa.gov/forms/view/420040/download?inline).

You might need to submit a Vehicle Record Request form (https://www.dol.wa.gov/forms/224003.pdf) if you don't know who all the registered owners are.

Do campers need their own registration and title?

Yes. Cab-over campers and other campers are living spaces that sit on your truck. Even if your camper is permanently attached to your truck, they each need their own title and registration. Even if the camper and truck were previously registered as one motorhome, now they have to be titled and registered individually. You will need to register and retitle them at the same time.

What if my mobile home is homemade or DIY built?

DIY built mobile homes like tiny homes might not have a VIN number assigned to them automatically. This includes conversion kits. You will need a VIN number to get a title for the mobile home. You might have to get a VIN number assigned to your mobile home if the trailer you used for the build doesn't have one. There are a lot of requirements to pass the inspection that is required if you need a VIN number assigned or are otherwise required to have an inspection. The vehicle must be roadworthy according to state laws.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

There are other strict requirements for documentation of the build that you will need to provide.

If you bought a finished homemade mobile home, you need a notarized bill of sale from the person you got it from. You will also need all of the original documentation for the major parts that were used to build the mobile home. Make sure the person who sold or gave you the homemade mobile home has all the original parts documentation.

Will I have to get a Washington State Patrol vehicle inspection?

If your mobile home doesn't have a VIN number because it is homemade or for some other reason, you must have an inspection. If you have to have a VIN number assigned to your mobile home, you must have an inspection from WSP. If you do need to have a WSP inspection, these are required as original documents (not copies):

- If you bought the mobile home or trailer from a private party, the bill of sale must be notarized.
- Receipts and invoices for major parts made out to you or a family member as the buyer or the licensed shop that built the trailer. If you bought the major parts from a third party, then you need a notarized bill of sale and the original parts receipt. If you provide internet receipts, they have to be for new major aftermarket parts and must also include the original shipping invoice to you.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

- Original receipts for any parts bought from a licensed business.
- Any parts bought from a vehicle wrecker or tow yard must have original receipts that include the VIN number for the vehicle that the parts came from.
- Any parts you got from a private party by purchase, trade or gift, must include the signed and released title for the vehicle the parts came off of or a notarized bill of sale. The notarized bill of sale, gift or trade must include the information about the vehicle the parts came off of.
- A weight slip from a certified scale for the completed trailer weight.
- A Washington State Patrol Inspection Request form
- If you plan to register it as an RV camp vehicle or Recreational Vehicle, you will need a completed Labor & Industries RV Inspection and to have the L&I Inspection insignia on your trailer.

Your mobile home might require a WSP inspection for other reasons even if it already had a VIN number. You might need an inspection for roadworthiness or for other reasons if required by WSP or DOL. If the vehicle was salvaged or the vehicle was rebuilt, an inspection might be required. You will be required to have an inspection if your ownership documents don't list the year, make and model of the home. If you can't pass the inspection or don't have the required documents, you can try to get title by using the 3-year "ownership in doubt" registration process.

2. Other ways to get title

What are other ways I can get title?

If you can't get title from a seller or other person you got the vehicle or mobile home from, you can apply for "ownership in doubt". Apply in any of these ways:

- Ask DOL to issue a 3-year registration without title. This converts to full ownership (giving you the title) if after 3 years nobody challenges (contests) your ownership.
- You can file a bond with DOL for a 3-year period and get a bonded title.
 The bond amount must be equal to 150% of the vehicle or mobile home's value.
- You can file a case in court for an order giving you legal ownership of the vehicle or mobile home (an order to quiet title).

New! Starting July 27, 2025 you can ask to have a new title created if none can be found for a mobile home, manufactured home or park model that you bought in a county treasurer's foreclosure or distraint sale for nonpayment of taxes.

When should I ask DOL for a registration without title or a bonded title?

You can apply for registration without title or a bonded title if both of these are true:

The seller never gave you title or never had the title.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

• No other known person claims to own the vehicle or mobile home.

It is easiest and cheapest if you get a 3-year registration without title. Then wait for 3 years to get a full title. Use the DOL's Bonded Title or Three-Year Registration Without Title Affidavit form (https://dol.wa.gov/forms/view/420008/download?inline).

3. Use court to quiet title

Should I file a court action?

Sometimes going to court is the only option. You might have to go to court if any of these are true:

- The person who sold you the vehicle or mobile home failed to file the bill of sale and transfer title and still claims ownership or won't release their interest.
- The used vehicle or mobile home dealer that sold you the vehicle, whose name is on the title, went out of business.
- The lender of your vehicle or mobile home loan went out of business.
- You can't wait the time required to use the 3-year registration process.
- You don't know who the legal owner is.
- Someone else also says that they own the vehicle or mobile home.

Who can't file a court case to quiet title?

Don't file a court case if either of these is true:

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

• The seller lost or misplaced the title. Ask the seller to apply for a new copy (https://dol.wa.gov/vehicles-and-boats/vehicles/renew-or-replace-vehicle-tabs/affidavit-lossrelease-interest) and sign it over to you. The seller should use the DOL's Affidavit of Loss/Release of Interest form (https://dol.wa.gov/forms/view/420040/download?inline).

• The title is in the name of someone other than the seller. Try to contact the person who has title and ask them to transfer ownership. If that person won't transfer title, you may need to file a court case.

What kind of court case must I file?

You must file a court case to "Quiet Title" to your vehicle or mobile home. It is also called applying for "ownership in doubt."

What county and court do I file in?

You can file in either District or Superior court. Most people file in District Court because it costs less. You can file in the county you live in. If you can't afford the filing fee, you can ask the court for a fee waiver.

What court forms do I need?

Use the forms in Chapter 9.

What if the court doesn't recognize this kind of case?

You can file this kind of case under RCW 46.12.680 (https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=46.12.680). The Washington ownership#:~:text=A%20person%20who%20is%20unable,(2)%20(b).)

describes more about this unique kind of court case. You might need to print the memo (https://customerservices.courts.wa.gov/helpdesk/attachments/72021301763) and file it as an exhibit with your court case. Or take a copy with you to your hearing to show the judge if they ask. It can help the judge better understand your case if they know about the memo.

4. Before you file

Gather information to identify the mobile home

- Year, make and model
- VIN (Vehicle Identification Number)

To find the VIN for a mobile home, check your paperwork or the printed metal tags affixed to your mobile home. You can usually find the VIN inside the home, on a sticker called the data plate. Look for the data plate on the wall inside the master bedroom closet. If it is not there, check inside your kitchen cabinets. It might be on a cabinet door. You can also check around the back door of the home or inside your HVAC closet.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

Find out who has title to the mobile home. That person will be the "Defendant" in your court forms. Contact that person if you can find them. Tell them why you think you are the correct owner. Try to get them to transfer title to you if possible.

In your court forms, you must say how you tried to contact the Defendant before going to court. Keep notes about when and how you tried to contact them and what happened if you reached them.

Prepare for the process

The court process takes time and involves many steps. Follow the step-by-step instructions in the next chapter. Here's a summary:

- Complete your forms including information about the person who has the title (the Defendant) and how you tried to contact them. Get this information together ahead of time.
- File the summons and complaint forms in court, pay the filing fee or ask for a fee waiver.
- Give the summons and complaint to the Defendant through correct notice procedures.
- Confirm that the Defendant isn't active-duty military.
- Give the Defendant 20 days to respond.
- If the Defendant doesn't respond, then prepare the Motion for Default and proposed Order on Motion for Default.
- File the Motion for Default in court. Ask the court clerk how to get your motion in front of a judge for review. There may be local forms to schedule a hearing or you may have to go to the court's ex parte docket. That is a special docket where the judge can sign orders where the other party doesn't appear.

Ask the judge to sign the Order on Motion for Default and the Order Quieting Title. Then get certified copies of the Order Quieting Title.

You can give the certified copy of the order to DOL and ask for new title issued in your name.

If the Defendant does respond to your summons and complaint within the first 20 days, you should get legal help before you continue with the case.

5. Step-by-step

Step-by-step

These instructions assume that Defendant won't respond to your quiet title lawsuit. If you expect Defendant to respond and challenge your ownership of the vehicle, try to talk to a lawyer.

1. Gather the information you'll need to identify the Defendant and the mobile home.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

2. Fill out the summons and complaint court forms. Make 2 copies after you have finished and signed them.

If you have evidence that supports your claim, attach a copy of it to your Complaint. This can include:

- Proof of sale like agreement copies or receipts
- Copies of communications between you and the Defendant

You can also print the Washington Courts memo about petitions for vehicle ownership (https://customerservices.courts.wa.gov/support/solutions/articles/72000578202-petitions-for-vehicle-ownership#:~:text=A%20person%20who%20is%20unable,(2)%20(b).) and attach it to your Complaint. This isn't required but might be helpful.

3. File your summons and complaint forms in court.

Bring your originals and copies to the clerk of the court where you are filing this case. Give the clerk your set of originals to file. Include the copy of your filing fee waiver if you are asking for one. Otherwise, pay your filing fee.

Ask the clerk to stamp your copies to show the date you filed the originals. Take the stamped copies back from the clerk. The clerk keeps the originals. The clerk should have assigned a case number on the copy you got.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

4. Give the Defendant notice.

Have someone other than you, age 18 or older, hand deliver a copy of the Summons and Complaint to Defendant or Defendant's registered agent.

Have the person who delivers the paperwork fill out and sign the Proof of Personal Service form. Check to be sure they filled out the date of service, who the papers were delivered to, and how they were delivered. Also be sure the form lists all documents that were served. If your server leaves out a form, you won't have proof it was served.

Make 2 copies of the signed Proof of Personal Service.

5. Wait 20 days.

The Defendant has 20 days

(https://www.courts.wa.gov/court_rules/pdf/CR/SUP_CR_12_00_00.pdf) to file an Answer to your complaint. The 20-day count begins when your server gave them the summons. You must wait those 20 days before you can do anything else. You can do steps 6-7 while you wait 20 days.

If the Defendant files an Answer, a Notice of Appearance, or responds to you in any way within the 20 days, stop here. Talk to a lawyer.

If Defendant is served outside of Washington State, they have 60 days to answer the lawsuit. Try to have Defendant served in Washington if you can.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

6. Check and confirm that the Defendant isn't active duty military.

(Skip this step if Defendant is a business or corporation.)

If Defendant is a person, you can look them up on the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) website (https://scra.dmdc.osd.mil/scra/#/home) and get a report from the Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC). You must create an account on that website to run a search. They call it a "record request". It's free. You'll need Defendant's date of birth or social security number. Attach the report to the Motion for Default.

If you don't have that information, try to find out if Defendant is active duty military some other way. You can ask them or ask people who know them well. In your Motion for Default, you must explain what you did to find out Defendant's military status.

If the Defendant is active duty military, stop here. Talk to a lawyer.

7. Prepare the final court forms.

If Defendant doesn't respond after 20 days, complete these court forms to finalize your case:

- Motion for Default
- Order on Motion for Default

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

Order Quieting Title to Vehicle or Manufactured Home

8. Go back to the court clerk.

File the original Poof of Personal Service. Ask the clerk to stamp your copies with the file date.

Tell the clerk you're filing a motion for default and want a judge to sign your final Order Quieting Title. Ask if you must schedule a hearing or if a judge can sign your orders "ex parte". Follow the clerk's instructions. The practice varies by county. Some courts don't have an ex parte docket.

"Ex parte" means both parties don't have to be present. The judge can sign an order ex parte if both parties have already signed it, or if one party doesn't have to be notified.

- If you can use Ex Parte, you may have a hearing the same day you file the forms, or the next day if you file later in the day.
- If you must schedule a hearing, ask the clerk about when and where the hearing will be, or if you need another form for that.

9. Get ready for and go to your hearing.

At the hearing you'll ask a judge to sign your proposed Order on Motion for Default and Order Quieting Title. Read the next 2 chapters for how to prepare and what to expect at your hearing.

10. Get certified copies of the signed orders from the clerk.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

If the judge signs your orders, you will need to get certified copies of both of the orders. You might be able to do it the same day as the hearing. Ask the judge's clerk as soon as your hearing is over how and when you can get certified copies of the orders. You will need at least 2 certified copies of the signed orders. The clerk will charge you for the copies.

11. Follow up with DOL.

After the hearing, give the certified copy of the order that quiets title to the DOL (http://www.dol.wa.gov/). Ask for a new title issued in your name. DOL will charge a fee for this.

6. What to say in court

Before the hearing, make a short outline of what to say to the court. It should look like this:

Introduction:

- My name is ______. Thank you for letting me be heard. I am asking for a default judgment to be entered and for an order to quiet title to this mobile home: [Describe the mobile home].
- I had the Defendant served and they didn't respond. I filed Proof of Personal Service with the court clerk. I have a copy if you'd like to see it.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

Tell the judge you've met all the statutory requirements from RCW 46.12.680:

- I bought this mobile home from the Defendant on [date].
- I can't get title transferred into my name because [explain].
- I've tried to contact the Defendant regarding this issue and the Defendant didn't respond.

The judge may ask you questions. If so, answer them to the best of your ability.

Practice what you'll say from your outline before you go to court. It's okay to read from your notes when you speak to the judge.

Learn tips for going to court.

7. At the hearing

Bring your copies of the documents that the clerk's office stamped. Also bring the extra copies of your proof of service and proposed orders.

It can help to take a copy of RCW 46.12.680

Si tiene niños, trate de encontrar a alguien que los cuide mientras asiste al procedimiento suplementario. El juez probablemente no los dejará sentarse en la sala del juzgado.

No lleve un arma, o algo que pueda confundirse con un arma (como una navaja), al juzgado.

Trate de llegar a la sala del juzgado al menos 15 minutos antes de la hora a la que le citaron. Dese tiempo para encontrar estacionamiento, o la parada correcta del transporte público, o para esperar en fila para entrar al juzgado.

Si su audiencia es en línea, siga estos consejos para las audiencias por teléfono y por video.

When you get to the courtroom:

 Check in with the courtroom clerk. Usually, they are sitting at a desk close to the judge. Tell the courtroom clerk your name because they need to know that you are there.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

- When the judge calls your case, walk up to the table or podium for lawyers in front of the judge. Wait for them to tell you that it is your turn to speak. Follow your outline.
- During the hearing, speak only to the judge. Speak only when it is your turn. Don't interrupt the judge or speak to the prosecutor, even if they interrupt or speak to you.
- Be polite, reasonable, and calm. If you're confused or don't understand something, politely tell the judge so and ask for clarification. If the judge asks you any questions. Answer the best you can. If you don't know the answer to the judge's question, don't guess. Tell the judge you don't know the answer. If you need time to think, just tell the court you need a moment. Take your time.
- If the judge agrees with you and signs your orders, ask the judge or courtroom clerk when the orders will be available at the clerk's office.
- When the orders are ready, get at least 2 certified copies of each order.
 You might be able to get them before you leave the court on the day of the hearing. Some courts will make you pick them up from the clerk at some point after the day of the hearing.

8. After the hearing

After the hearing, give the certified copy of the order that quiets title to the DOL (http://www.dol.wa.gov/). Ask for a new title issued in your name. DOL will charge a fee for this.

Tips for filling out the Summons (NJP Vehicle 150)

Fill out the blank spaces in the form headings (also called captions). Fill in the spaces for the name of the court (District or Superior), the county of the court,

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

your name (Plaintiff), and the Defendant's name.
Don't fill in the case number. It looks like this: "No	". The court clerk will do this when you file your forms.

Form section 1: To Defendant/s. Put the Defendant's name. If the Defendant is a business, also check the box and put the business's registered agent.

If you're suing a business or corporation, you must list its correct name and registered agent. A registered agent is the person you must notify of the lawsuit. Use Washington's Secretary of State Corporation Search (https://ccfs.sos.wa.gov/?_gl=1*1xo1m0o*_ga*NDEwMTM5NDM0LjE2Nzl5NTg5ODk.*_gatool to find this information.

Form section 2: Notice. Put your name as Plaintiff.

At the end of the Summons, date, sign, and print your name. Put an address or email where you agree to accept legal documents for this case.

Tips for filling out the Complaint to Quiet Title to Vehicle or Manufactured Home (NJP Vehicle 151)

Fill out the headings including the court name, county, Plaintiff and Defendant's names. Don't fill out the case number.

Fill out the blank spaces in the complaint and check the boxes that apply.

Form section 2: Vehicle or manufactured home. Give the information requested about the mobile home.

To find the VIN number for a mobile home, check your paperwork or the printed metal tags affixed to your mobile home. You can usually find the VIN inside the home, on a sticker called the data plate. Look for the data plate on the wall inside the master bedroom closet. If it is not there, check inside your kitchen cabinets. It might be on a cabinet door. You can also check around the back door of the home or inside your HVAC closet.

Form section 3: Defendant/s. If Defendant is a business, use Washington's Secretary of State Corporation Search (https://ccfs.sos.wa.gov/#/) tool to find the address and registered agent.

Form section 5: Purchase. Fill in the information about how much you bought the vehicle for and when the sale was. Check whether you paid cash (even in installments) or took out a loan which is now paid off.

If you have any documentation of your purchase or loan payoff, attach a copy of it to your complaint. Label any attachment as "Exhibit A", "Exhibit B", and so on. Exhibits must be on letter sized (8.5 by 11 inches) white paper.

Form section 6: Registration. Attach a copy of your registration from DOL. Label the attachment as an Exhibit.

Maintained by Northwest Justice Project

Form section 7: Issues. Check the box that applies. If Defendant went out of business, use Washington's Secretary of State Corporation Search (https://ccfs.sos.wa.gov/#/) tool to find out when this happened. The business's full listing includes the "inactive date." The business dissolved on that date. If you don't find it there, check these websites:

- Department of Revenue business licensing (https://secure.dor.wa.gov/gteunauth/_/#1)
- Department of Financial Institutions (https://dfi.wa.gov/industry)
- Nationwide Multistate Licensing System (http://www.nmlsconsumeraccess.org/)

Form section 8: Attempts to contact Defendant. Put details about when and how you tried to contact Defendant about the title, if you ever reached them, and what happened if you did.

Form section 9: Need to sell or dispose of property. Check if you need to remove Defendant as the legal owner so you can sell or dispose of the property.

Sign, date, and fill out the bottom.

el formulario indique todos los documentos que fueron entregados. Si su notificador no incluye algún formulario, usted no tendrá prueba de que se entregó.

Tips for filling out the Motion for Default (NJP General 051)

Fill out the heading including the court name, county, your name and the Defendant's name. Fill out the case number with the number that the clerk assigned to the complaint.

Form sections 1 – 6. Fill in the blanks and check the boxes that apply to your situation.

Form section 7: Active duty military. Put the information you learned from checking if Defendant is active duty military.

If the Defendant is active duty military, stop here. Talk to a lawyer.

Sign, date, and fill out the bottom.

Tips for filling out the Order on Motion for Default (NJP General 052)

Fill out the order form the way you want the judge to sign it. This is a proposed order you'll ask the judge to sign at the hearing. If you're not sure about something in the order, leave it blank for the judge to complete.

Fill out the heading including the court name, county, your name and the Defendant's name. Fill out the case number with the number that the clerk assigned to the complaint.

Form sections 1 – 7. Fill in the blanks and check the boxes to match what you said in the Motion for Default.

Form sections 8 and 10. It's okay to leave these blank.

Form section 9: The Motion for Default is.... Check "Granted" and put Defendant's name.

Don't date or sign this order by the judge's signature line. The judge does that.

Sign and print your name at the end below "Presented by Plaintiff."

Tips for filling out the Order Quieting Title to Vehicle or Manufactured Home (NJP Vehicle 152)

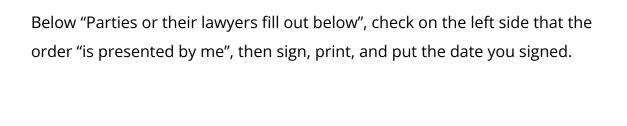

Fill out the heading including the court name, county, your name and the Defendant's name. Fill out the case number with the number that the clerk assigned to the complaint.

Fill out the order form the way you want the judge to sign it. This is a proposed order you'll ask the judge to sign at the hearing.

Form section 2: Order. Put your name, the vehicle description and VIN. Check if the property is a vehicle or manufactured home.

Don't date or sign this order by the judge's signature line. The judge does that.
