

Danielle's Test Guide - Review

Author

Northwest Justice Project

This is my new draft that I want reviewed by a 2nd editor. I'm assigning it to myself for review.

I deleted the first part of the first sentence. You have to sign a lot of documents that show your name and the address or location of your property. These documents show up in public records that anyone can see. If you're in the Address Confidentiality Program (ACP), you can keep your name and location confidential by creating a Revocable Living Trust that you can control. Then you can buy property in the name of the Trust, without using your own name. (Form and instructions)

1. Link practice

Make an external link to Supplemental Security Income site.

Read more about SSI (<https://www.ssa.gov/ssi>).

Make a link to Chapter 2 of this guide.

Read fast facts about this topic.

Make a link to How much will I have to pay? in Chapter 2 of this guide.

You may have to pay child support.

Make a link to Chapter 3 of the Represent yourself at a DSHS hearing guide.

You can ask for a hearing.

Make a link to the callout in Chapter 3 of the Represent yourself at a DSHS hearing guide.

There are some exceptions.

Make a link to Which debts can I discharge in bankruptcy? accordion in the Bankruptcy issue.

You can discharge some debts.

Make a link to These debts are generally not dischargeable paragraph in the Which debts can I discharge in bankruptcy? accordion in the Bankruptcy issue.

These debts are not dischargeable.

Review links on front-end.

2. Fast facts

This is a new heading

Who decides how much support I'll pay?

A judge or the Washington State Division of Child Support (DCS)
(<https://www.dshs.wa.gov/esa/division-child-support>) decides.

What information does the judge or DCS need from me?

Each parent fills out child support worksheets. You put information about your finances and the children's needs. If you're in court, you may also have to fill out a Financial Declaration.

This information gets applied to a child support schedule. The schedule sets the support amount based on the parents' income and how many children you have.

The judge or DCS will usually follow the schedule. They can sometimes consider other things too, though.

You can find the schedule and worksheets on our page about how child support is set.

()How much will I have to pay?

It depends. If your take-home pay is very low, you may only have to pay $50 per child monthly. If a judge (or DCS) decides it would be unjust to order even that little, they can change (can deviate) from the $50 amount to make it even lower.

3. Step-by-step

Choose a Public Trustee and create a trust. You can create your revocable Living Trust Agreement by using our form. You can also work with a lawyer to create a trust.

This is a new second paragraph.

1. When naming your trust, pick something that's not associated with your name. It can be anything distinctive, such as the "XYZ Trust" or "Banana Trust". (These are examples. Choose your own unique name for your Trust.) The trust name will show up in recorded and county documents that anyone can see. Please check with ACP to see if the trust name you want has already been taken.
2. File the originals with the Superior Court Clerk. Give the clerk the originals of all your forms for filing except you should ask the clerk what to do with the originals of any proposed orders. Follow the clerk's instructions.

Ask the clerk to stamp your copies to show the date you filed the originals. Take the stamped copies back from the clerk. The clerk keeps the original.

Deliver working copies to the judge, if required in your county.

Fill out forms online

- File for a Protection Order

4. Forms

Form attached:

Findings and Conclusions About a Committed Intimate Relationship (NJP Family 933)

Form attached:

Response to Complaint to End Committed Intimate Relationship and Divide Property and Debts — Unmarried Couple (NJP Family 932)

How long does the Trust last?

You can put an end date or conditions for ending the Trust in the Trust Agreement. You also can end the Trust at any time by putting in writing that you want to terminate it.

Otherwise, the Trust lasts as long as you want it to. The Trust can continue even if you no longer qualify for ACP status and are no longer enrolled as an ACP Participant (unless your Trust Agreement says it ends in that situation). If you're no longer enrolled with ACP, you must give the county treasurer and assessor's office a new mailing address for the Trust.

What happens when the Trust ends?

The property is transferred back to you (unless you sold it). The Trustee signs a deed on behalf of the Trust that transfers the property into your name. When that new deed is recorded, you become the owner and taxpayer of record. Your personal mailing address becomes the mailing address for all official mail about the property. This information will be available to the public.

What happens when I'm no longer enrolled as an ACP participant?

You can't use the ACP address as your personal address if you're no longer an ACP Participant. Any mail ACP receives for you will be returned to sender. It won't be forwarded to you.

The Trust deleted several words and added these no longer qualify for ACP status and are no longer enrolled as an ACP Participant, unless your Trust Agreement says it ends in that situation. If you're no longer enrolled with ACP, you must give the county treasurer and assessor's office a new mailing address for the Trust.
