You can clear (vacate) certain Washington state convictions from your record if the conviction was related to your treaty Indian fishing rights. Learn how to do it and get the forms you need.

We have separate forms and instructions for vacating different types of criminal records.

1. Fast facts

What does it mean to "vacate" convictions?

Vacate is the legal term for "clearing" a conviction from your criminal record. Even though vacating a record cancels the judgement against you, it does not make the court record private. If you get a criminal record vacated, you can tell anyone who asked that you were not convicted of that offense.

Why would I want to vacate a conviction?

It will:

- Give you some protection in background checks.
- Stop the State Patrol from releasing the record to the public.
- Officially "cancel" the conviction. GR 15(b)(8)

Vacate a criminal conviction related to treaty Indian fishing rights

You can tell anyone, including someone who might hire you, that you were not convicted of that offense.

Will I need to go to a hearing?

Maybe not. The prosecutor might agree to a vacate order if you meet all legal requirements. Local practices vary. Ask the county prosecutor's office in the county where your conviction occurred if they'll agree to a vacate order. If they agree to the order, you probably won't have to go to a hearing.

You'll most likely have to go to the court many times even if you don't have a hearing. Prepare for multiple visits to the courthouse over a period of many weeks.

If I vacate my record, will it be totally cleared?

If you're granted an order that vacates a conviction or record, Washington State Patrol (WSP) will remove the vacated conviction from your public criminal history record. This gives you some protection in some background checks.

There may still be a mention of your conviction or record in certain places even if you have the record vacated. But once you have a court order that vacates a conviction, you can show that to prove that the record was vacated any time it does show up.

Will this remove all public information about the conviction?

No. It will not remove it from court records and computerized court indexes to court records, such as:

- JIS.
- SCOMIS.
- The Washington Courts public website (http://www.courts.wa.gov)

Even if you have your record vacated, it can still show up in these ways:

• Information about the court records from the case that led to the conviction are still public and accessible on Washington Courts public website

(http://www.courts.wa.gov).

- Prosecutors can still raise evidence of the vacated conviction during a later criminal prosecution or sexually violent predator commitment proceeding.
- FBI records and private background check service records may still have info about a vacated conviction.
- Employers, landlords, and others doing background checks might still find out about your conviction from sources including court indexes, law enforcement databases, and/or records collected by private data brokers.

Can I have my conviction expunged?

No. In some states, expungement of a conviction means they delete it from your records entirely. There is no Washington law allowing for the deletion or destruction of an adult conviction record.

Can I get my non-conviction data deleted?

Yes. You can ask Washington State Patrol (WSP) to delete non-conviction data. It is hard for information to qualify as non-conviction data under the rules. This could make it hard for you to get the information deleted. RCW 10.97.030(2) (http://apps.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=10.97.030) and 10.97.060 (http://apps.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=10.97.060) describe which kinds of information can be deleted from your record.

I got a Vacate Order. What if agencies are still reporting that information anyway?

Under state law, law enforcement agencies must report accurate and complete criminal history info. No agency may report criminal history info concerning a conviction without checking with WSP to find out the most current and complete info available. RCW 10.97.040.

(https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=10.97.040)

You may be able to sue an agency that violates this requirement. This might make sense if, for example, you lost a job opportunity because of their mistake. RCW 10.97.110 (http://apps.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=10.97.110). You may be able to get attorney's fees.

The court file stays open to the public. A background check may still show your conviction if the person doing the background check looks at the court file. If that happens, you can show them the court order that vacated your conviction. That order is supposed to clear your record related to that information. Employers should accept the vacate order as proof that the record was cleared even if the court file information is still public.

Employees at an agency that keeps reporting your vacated conviction may be criminally liable. RCW 10.97.120 (https://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=10.97.120).

2. Fishing Convictions

Is it possible to vacate a criminal conviction related to treaty Indian fishing rights?

Yes. You can have the conviction vacated if both of these are true:

- You are a member of a tribe that has treaty Indian fishing rights.
- Your tribe has those treaty rights at the location where the offense occurred.

You can ask to vacate a fishing conviction for yourself or for a family member if that person has died. This guide has the instructions and forms you need.

If you need to ask to vacate a conviction related to your tribal fishing rights, the Native American Unit of the Northwest Justice Project might be able to help you.

What kind of fishing convictions can be vacated?

You can vacate a criminal conviction related to treaty Indian fishing rights if all of these are true:

- The conviction was for violating certain Washington state laws related to catching salmon or steelhead.
- At the time of the arrest that led to the conviction, the fishing activities were protected by a treaty Indian fishing right at the specific location of the arrest.
- You are a member of a tribe or nation with those Indian fishing rights.

How do I know if my tribe has treaty based Indian fishing rights protections?

You have treaty Indian fishing rights if you are a member of a Washington or Oregon Indian tribe that entered into one of these treaties:

- Treaty of Medicine Creek (included more than 60 tribal signatories which includes many of the tribes present today in Washington)
- Treaty of Point Elliott (Duwamish Tribe, Suquamish Tribe, Snoqualmie Indian Tribe, Snohomish Tribe of Indians, Lummi Nation, Upper Skagit Tribe, Swinomish Tribe, the Lower Skagit band of the Swinomish Tribe, Skokomish Indian Tribe, Sammamish peoples now part of Tulalip Tribes, Stillaguamish Tribe of Indians, Sauk- Suiattle Indian Tribe, many tribes now part of present day Muckleshoot Indian Tribe, Tulalip Tribes, the Nooksack are also likely included under this treaty)
- Treaty of Point no Point (also known as the Treaty with the S'Klallam and included all S'Klallam bands including Jamestown S'klallam Tribe and Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe, Chimakum, Skokomish Indian Tribe)
- Treaty of Neah Bay (also known as the Treaty with the Makah Tribe)
- Treaty with the Walla Walla (Walla Walla tribe, Cayuse tribe, Confederate Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, Nez Perce Tribes, Confederated Tribes and Bands of Yakama Nation)
- Treaty with the Yakama (Confederated Tribes and Bands of Yakama Nation)
- Treaty with the Nez Perce Tribe (1855 treaty and included Nez Perce Tribe bands)
- Treaty with the Tribes of Middle Oregon (Wasco, Deschutes, Tenino, Middle Oregon- now part of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs and the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation)
- Treaty of Olympia (Hoh Tribe, Quileute Tribe, Quinault Indian Nation, Coastal Treaty Tribes)
- Treaty with the Bitterroot Salish, Kootenai, and Pend d' Oreille (also known as the Hellgate Treaty)

Most tribes in Washington do have treaty Indian fishing rights. If you aren't sure if your tribe has these rights, try to contact your tribe's government to find out.

Can I ask to vacate someone else's fishing convictions if the person has died?

Yes. You can file to vacate the record on behalf of your deceased family member. A family member (or official tribal representative) can ask to vacate another person's fishing conviction if the person is deceased.

Can I ask to vacate someone else's fishing convictions?

Only if the person has died.

If you want to help someone who is still alive (like a tribal elder), the person themself will have to be the person who files the case. You can use this guide and forms to help them.

What information will I need for this?

You need this information:

- Which county court (Superior or District) the conviction happened in
- The date the court convicted happened
- Which state law (or "RCW") the court convicted you under. This is usually listed on the citation itself. These are the typical RCWs for this kind of fishing related conviction: RCWs 75.08.260, 75.12.060, 75.12.070, 75.12.160, 77.16.020, 77.16.030, 77.16.040, 77.16.060, and 77.16.240.

If you still have the paperwork from the conviction, it should have the violation you were charged with listed on it.

If you don't have the paperwork anymore, you might need to get help finding this information. Start by calling the court clerk of the court you think the conviction would have happened in.

3. Before you file

What documents do I need?

For treaty fishing rights related convictions, you'll need to prove these 3 things:

- The conviction was for violating certain Washington state laws related to catching salmon or steelhead.
- At the time of the arrest, the fishing activities were protected by a treaty Indian fishing right at the specific location of the arrest.
- You are a member of a tribe or nation with those Indian fishing rights.

Gather documents that show these things like:

- The offense ticket or citation itself
- Any court charging documents or any paper showing the fishing related charge
- Your tribal enrollment card
- Other proof of your membership in a tribe who has protected treaty rights to the waterways you were fishing in

Fill out your forms

Fill out the forms in Chapter 8 of this guide.

You'll need to get a special form signed by a representative from your tribe. Plan ahead as that can take some time to coordinate.

Get the signature from your tribal representative

Have a tribal representative fill out and sign the Tribal Status Certification on page 3 of the Motion and Declaration form. Only a tribal representative can fill this out.

4. File your forms

If you meet the requirements and have gathered your documents, follow these steps:

1. Gather your completed forms from Chapter 8 of this guide.

2. Contact the prosecutor's office.

Before filing your papers or scheduling a court hearing, you should contact the prosecutor's office involved in your case to see if they might agree. This will take some time. When you call, you can say:

I'm filing a petition to vacate a treaty fishing rights conviction from (year). Which prosecutor in your office handles this issue? What's the best way for me to send paperwork to you?

Write down the prosecutor's name, then send that person a copy of your Motion (with any attachments) and a proposed Order. Wait a few days, then call that prosecutor to ask if they'll agree to sign an order vacating your conviction.

The prosecutor's office may sign off on an Agreed Order if you provide enough proof that you have met the requirements. If they do that, you probably won't have to have a court hearing.

If the prosecutor doesn't respond or agree, you can schedule a hearing and ask the judge to decide. You must follow court rules and properly notify the prosecutor of the hearing.

You have the right to file your motion and get a decision from a judge.

3. Make 3 copies of your completed forms (except for the Proof of Service).

Call or visit the Superior Court Clerk's Office (https://www.courts.wa.gov/court_dir/?fa=court_dir.county).

Tell the clerk you'll be filing a petition to vacate a treaty fishing rights related misdemeanor conviction. Tell the clerk you want to schedule a hearing on your motion 3 or 4 weeks from now.

Ask the clerk:

- What day and time can I schedule a hearing on my request to vacate?
- Which docket or calendar will the hearing be on?
- What courtroom will the hearing be in? (This may be assigned on the day of the hearing.)
- Is there an option to appear remotely? (Phone or video.)
- o Do you have a local form I have to use to schedule a hearing?

If the clerk says you must use their local form, ask them where you can get that form. Otherwise, you can use the Notice of Hearing form we give you. Write in the hearing details you got from the clerk.

In some counties the judge may decide these motions without a hearing. If the clerk says you don't need a hearing date, ask when you can expect to get a decision. You still need to follow all the steps below (except preparing for and going to the hearing).

The clerk should not charge you a fee to file this motion.

5. File the originals with the Superior Court Clerk.

To file in person:

- Bring your originals and copies to the clerk's office
- o Give the clerk your set of originals to file
- Ask the clerk to stamp your copies to show the date you filed the originals, OR stamp the copies yourself
- Take the stamped copies back from the clerk. The clerk keeps the originals

To file by mail: mail the court clerk your originals plus one set of copies with a postage-paid return envelope addressed to you.

- 6. Deliver or mail working copies to the judge if local rules require it. Ask the clerk where to deliver the judge's working copies. (Skip this step if local rules don't require it.)
- 7. Deliver or mail a copy to the prosecutor's office right away. Most counties require service at least 14 days before a hearing. Ask the clerk if your county's deadline is different.

You can serve the prosecutor by hand delivery or regular mail.

Hand Delivery means handing a copy to someone who works in the prosecutor's office. Have them stamp the date on your copy of the same papers. Tell them you've scheduled a hearing, and they should give your papers to a prosecutor right away.

Mail: If you're mailing, you must mail your papers more than 3 days before your deadline.

- When counting, don't count the day of mailing, weekends, or court holidays (Example: if you mail something on a Monday, it counts as served on Thursday)
- If the third day is on a weekend or holiday, it is not "served" until the next court day

If you send your papers by regular first-class mail, you can have an extra copy sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, for extra proof of mailing. You can staple the green return receipt card to the Proof of Service form. (This is not required.)

- 8. File your Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery. As soon as you have mailed or delivered the delivered the papers to the prosecutor, fill out and sign the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form. Then:
 - Make 3 copies
 - Take the original and copies to the court clerk's office
 - Give the original to the clerk for filing
 - o Ask the clerk to stamp the date you filed the original on your copies
 - Bring your copies to the hearing.
- 9. Get ready for and go to your court hearing. Read the next chapters for what to say and do at the hearing.
- 10. Get certified copies of the signed order from the clerk. When the order is available, go to the clerk's office and ask for at least 2 certified copies of the signed orders. The clerk will charge you for the copies.
 - Keep a certified copy of your order with you in case someone, like a prospective employer, gets negative information from some other source.
 - 1. After the hearing, follow up with the Washington State Patrol (WSP) and other agencies.

5. What to say in court

Before the hearing, make a short outline of what to say to the court. It should look like this:

Introduction:

• My name is _____. Thank you for letting me be heard. I am bringing a motion to vacate my misdemeanor fishing conviction.

Tell the judge you've met all the statutory requirements from RCW 09.96.060(4) because:

- The conviction was for violating certain Washington state laws related to catching salmon or steelhead.
- At the time of the arrest, the fishing activities were protected by a treaty Indian fishing right at the specific location of the arrest.
- I am a member of a tribe or nation with those Indian fishing rights at that location. I provided a signed Tribal Status Certification declaration form with my Motion.

The judge may ask you questions. If so, answer them to the best of your ability.

Practice what you'll say from your outline before you go to court. It's okay to read from your notes when you speak to the judge.

6. Court hearing

Bring your copies of the documents that the clerk's office and prosecutor's office date stamped. Also bring the extra copies of your Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery and Order on Motion to Vacate.

If you have children, try to find someone to watch them while you go to court. The judge probably won't let them sit in the courtroom.

Don't bring a weapon, or something that could be mistaken for a weapon (like a pocketknife), to the courthouse.

Try to be in the courtroom at least 15 minutes before you were told to be there. Give yourself time to find parking, or the right transit stop, or to wait in line to get into the courthouse.

If your hearing is online, follow these tips for phone and video hearings

When you get to the courtroom:

- Check in with the courtroom clerk. Usually, they are sitting at a desk close to the judge. Tell the courtroom clerk your name because they need to know that you are there.
- Find the prosecutor and introduce yourself. Go over any last-minute details with them before the hearing, like an agreed order.
- When the judge calls your case, walk up to the table or podium for lawyers in front of the judge. Wait for them to tell you that it is your turn to speak.
 Follow your outline.
- During the hearing, speak only to the judge. Speak only when it is your turn.
 Don't interrupt the judge or speak to the prosecutor, even if they interrupt or speak to you.
- Be polite, reasonable, and calm. If you're confused or don't understand something, politely tell the judge so and ask for clarification. If the judge asks you any questions, answer the best you can. If you don't know the answer to the judge's question, don't guess. Tell the judge you don't know the answer.
 If you need time to think, just tell the court you need a moment. Take your time.
- If the judge agrees with you and signs your order, ask the judge or courtroom clerk when the order will be available at the clerk's office.

7. Follow up

Check with Washington State Patrol & other agencies

About a month after the judge signs your vacate order, call WSP at (360) 534-2000. Ask WSP if they got your vacate order from the court and are working on processing it. (The clerk should have sent it.) If they don't yet have it, call the court clerk's office and ask them to send a copy to WSP.

About 3 months after you called the WSP to make sure they got your vacate order, you should check if your criminal history record with WSP is up-to-date and correct. Do this by ordering a new official and/or unofficial copy of your criminal history report.

Your criminal history info may have found its way into other databases. Contact the FBI, local law enforcement, Department of Corrections, Department of Licensing, and other agencies to ask them to remove their records about this info from public dissemination. You may need to send them a certified copy of the vacate order.

A private data company may have your conviction record. Ask the agencies to tell any private company that has gotten the record from them in the past to update their records and stop disseminating it because of the vacate order. You may need to send them a certified copy of your order.

Try to keep at least 1 certified copy of your order in case someone, like a prospective employer, gets negative info from some other source.

8. Forms

Form attached:

Notice of Hearing (general civil) (NJP General 008)

Form attached:

Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery (general civil) (NJP General 002)

Follow the general rules to format and fill out court documents.

Any documents you file with the court may remain public.

Tips for filling out the Motion and Declaration for an Order Vacating Conviction – Treaty Indian Fishing Rights (CrRLJ 09.0500)

Fill out the motion form to explain what you want the judge to do and why they should do it.

- Don't forget to have page 3 signed by your Tribal Representative.
- Attach to your motion any documents you gathered that prove you meet the requirements.

Tips for filling out the Order on Motion Re: Vacating Conviction - Treaty Indian Fishing Rights CrRLJ 09.0700

Fill out the order form the way you want the judge to sign it. This is a proposed order you'll ask the judge to sign at the hearing. If you're not sure about something in the order, leave it blank for the judge to complete.

Tips for filling out the Notice of Hearing (NJP General 008)

Fill out the Notice of Hearing with details from the court clerk. You can try to get that information over the phone, or in-person when you file your papers. When choosing a date, leave yourself enough time to have the other party served.

Many counties require you to use their own form. Ask the clerk if they use a special Notice of Hearing form. If not, use ours.

Tips for filling out the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery (NJP General 002)

Fill out this form after serving the other party. Whoever served the other party must sign it. Follow the rules for service after a case starts.

Check to be sure your server filled out the date of service, who the papers were delivered to, and how they were delivered. Also be sure the form lists all documents that were served. If your server leaves out a form, you won't have proof it was served.
